

---

In this ceremony participated Jeyhun Bairamov, deputy minister of education, sectional departments managers of ministry of education, official representatives of district educational departments and representatives of non-government organizations.

Deputy minister of education spoke at this ceremony, and said, that there is big interest to this contest, which being organized already 5-th year. There were presented about 11104 projects at the official website of contest (www.musabige.edu.az), and in online discussions of projects took part 6930 teachers, 1877 students, 5349 pupils, and 638 parents who were registered.

The purpose of this contest is to expand application of electronic learning resources, internet technologies in studying process, to study new ways of using internet and to motivate those teachers, who use informational technologies.

This contest was organized in 3 directions and by 7 nominations. Those candidates, who got high points demonstrated their own works to the Organizational Committee. According to the latest results, 21 persons were announced winners, 47 persons distinguished.

Winners were awarded with diploma, notebook, map-case, printer and other special prizes. Distinguished participants were also awarded with prizes.

This contest was sponsored by "AZEDUNET", "Edumedia", "Ultra" and "Madad Azerbaijan", "Education for future" program of "Intel" corporation, "Nar Mobile" and "Dr.Web" companies.