AdditAdditional admission has been donducted taking into account students interest to these specialties and priority of several specialties formed according to the results of student admission in the SABAH groups on 2014-2015 academic year.

81 students who are studying at the 2 nd year and obtained higher academic achievements have been selected under contest and placed in existing and newly established SABAH groups in the Baku State University, Azerbaijan Technical University, Azerbaijan Architecture and Construction University, also Azerbaijan State Pedagogical University. These students will continue their study on the specialties of high history; history teacher, geography, geography teacher, sconstruction lengineering, transport construction, primary education and computer engineering.

In this, total number of the students who are studying at SABAH gropus reached up 769. Number of the specialties in the SABAH groups reached from 33 to 37.

Illt-shouldbe-noted that, nearly 200 students who are studying at 70 universities of SABAH groups have been equipped with hostel.