By Byrpurpose topsupport finethefreforms implemented by The Ministry of Education only	choc)ls' management, course in Training for potential school directors on school's amanagement	will	be conducted by UNICEF and Khazar University.

Trainings that consist of seven modules, will be conducted for three month. Regular research topics on each module will be given, evaluations will be conducted. Persons who successfully completed training will be awarded to certificate. Furthermore, participants who want to continue their studies at master level in the Khazar University in future will be given five (ECTS) credits.

Persons who obtained certificates canttake partiin the contest to be held on the vacancies to be occuped to the position of the directors of secondary education tin stitutions by The Ministry of Education.

For detailed information, please see website www.khazar.org of Khazar University.