Leakeaders of relevant structural sections of The Ministry of Education explained the provisions envisaged in the Action Plan on the issues related to creation of personality-oriented education content based on competence, formation of highly influential educators and new management system, creation of infrastructure that ensures ilifelong learning and new financing mechanisms and other issues in the conference.
Pri Priorities have been idelivered again twithin framework of taster Strategy on development of ededucation in the Azerbaijan Republica salso detailed information given on performed actions in the event.
Finally, the officials of The Ministry of Education responded several questions of the journalists.