Teachers to be selected under contest, will obtain right to take part in the new format and content training within framework of f'Eoundation's scholarship program. Participants will be acquainted with new approaches on the topics of age physiology and psychology, philosophy of primary education and ledearning theories, practical pedagogical skill and Information Communication Technologies diteracy during 16 weeks.

Trainees will take part in the final valuation. Participants who demonstrated satisfactory result in the examinations, will be awarded to certificate and training resources.

The Ministry of Education of Azerbaijan Republic invites primary schools teachers who educate in the the IV grade of the schools functioning Bat Baky city to take part in the "Foundation" scholarship program.