

---

Mikayil Jabbarov, minister of education took part in the concert held in the Azerbaijan National Art Museum. Leaders of culture and art higher and secondary educational institutions, directors of secondary schools took part in the event as well.

Presidential scholars and laureates of international contest performed the compositions of Azerbaijan also world composers with violin, piano and tar as well as they sounded tracks from the areas.

Making a speech after concert, Mikayil Jabbarov minister of education congratulated all youth on occasion of The Day of Youth organized by our national leader Heydar Aliyev in 1996. Minister stressed that wide horizons were opened before the youth as a result of care and attention of state leader Ilham Aliyev. Reminding special role of Heydar Aliyev Fund and its president Mehriban khanum Aliyeva in the development of Azerbaijan music culture, Mikayil Jabbarov wished the successes to the administration and pupils of secondary music school named after Bulbul.