
Students who study at the 1st year of all higher educational institution on bachelor degree in our country and whose academic indicator is more than 61 points, can take part in the contest.

Registration of the students who want to study at SABAH groups had already started. Students can join in the contest through filling in electronic form placed in www.sabah.edu.az website.

Contest organized on 64 specialties included in 6 specialties group (nature, education, economy, humanitarian, technical, culture) will be conducted on 3 phases. Students' academic indicators will be evaluated in the initial phase. Students will pass test examination on English language and logic. Candidates who pass these procedures successfully will be invited to the interview.

Announcement