Interesting issues like educational reforms implemented in the Azerbaijan and Turkmenistan, performance of exchange of experience between two countries on this sphere, development of mutual cooperation among higher educational institutions; increase of istudents in number from Turkmenistan who study in the Azerbaijan and others, have been discussed during meeting.

Itit was stated that now 238 students from Turkmenistan are studying at the higher educational instillustrations of Azerbaijan Oil-gas engineering and civil engineering have special places through specialty directions mostly interested by them.

Mika Mikayib Jabbarov, sminiser of ceducation proposed to benefit Azerbaijan experience within framework of integration of Turkmenstan to Bologny process and stated that, The Ministry of Education is ready to make relevant support on this direction.