

---

The contest was held on the nominations of pop songs of Azerbaijani composers, tasnifs and folk songs, poetry, national dance.

It should be noted that the employees of the Republic Creative House for Young Learners together with the jury contributed to the fair organization of the contest and the selection of the most talented students from the participants for the Republic phase.