The representatives of the Ministry of Education and the Main State Traffic Police Department, "Be cloclosed to dife "group representatives nearly 100 students" of general education institutions in Baku attended the event on the theme "Traffic rules: remember and follow".

Persons, speaking at the event, emphasized the importance of learning and following the traffic rules from the early years. It was noted that the conduction of regular trainings on traffic rules and the organization of enlightening events among the teachers of schools and pre-school education institutions for the prevention of road accidents are the main factors that prevents undesirable incidents encountered by children on the road.

Stude Students performed poemssands songs, addicated to the traffic rules and traffic police. ScSchoolchildren, dressed in special uniforms, participated in the interactive deducational, active and didactic games.

In In the end; the ichildren performed the iskits on traffic rules and drove around the town in small cars.