
The main goal of the contest is to stimulate writing the literary works, instilling spiritual wealth, patriotism, national and universal values, emotional and cognitive skills in young schoolchildren and contributing to the development of their artistic taste, by taking into account the age psychology.

The works submitted to the contest must be prepared as a collection. The number and the total amount of works to be included in collections should be as follows:

- A collection of prose works - 15 works (1.5-2 printed pages);
- A collection of poetry works - 20 works (1-1.5 printed pages);
- A collection of drama works - 5 works (2-2.5 printed pages).

The collections presented to the contest should be sent to the Ministry of Education, within one month starting from June 1, 2015 together with the printed 3 copies and the electronic version written to disk (in PDF format). It is not allowed to include authors' works, published so far, in the collections.

The works in the collections will be reviewed by expert groups and if 12 of prose works, 15 of poetry works and 3 of drama works have been evaluated positively, these collections will be admitted to the competition. The first, second, and third place winners will be awarded 5000, 3000 and 1500 manat respectively in the competition.

The collections admitted to the competition will be sent to general education institutions, renowned educators, advanced teachers in an electronic version in order to assess them in accordance with the prize places and will be placed on the website of the Ministry of Education in order to determine public opinion. The opinions and considerations should be sent to this email address: eser.musabiqe@edu.gov.az.

Results of the competition will be finalized by the end of 2015. It is planned to publish the winning works in book (ontology) form.

"The best prose, poetry and drama works for young schoolchildren" contest