The event was attended by Jeyhun Bayramov, Deputy Minister of Education, and Pascal Meunier, Ambassador of the Republic of France to Azerbaijan.

Pascal Meunier emphasized that there is close cooperation between Azerbaijan and France in all fields and the joint activities in the field of education are based on mutual benefit. The ambassador also noted that there are great opportunities for graduates to study in France.

JeyJeyhun Bayramov, Deputy Minister of Education, noted that along with the school principals, subordinated to the Ministry of Education, as well as recommended by Baku City Education Department, the heads of Sungait and other city (district) schools, achieved good results in the final exams for the academic year 2013-2014, participated in the training courses. The Deputy Minister also mentioned that the main objective of the intensive training program is to introduce the concept of advanced training sy system and effective school management for selected school principals and to develop leadership potential of school managers.

The training course, which will last until September 9, will be conducted by Professor Florent Pra Pratlong, specially invited from Paris Sorbonne University. In addition, the interactive sessions on lead leadership, protection to estudent the alth within the school, time management, development of prepresentation skills and other topics will be organized by local trainerst within the framework of the course.

AAt the end of the course; the participants will be bharged with long-term tasks related to school management and the online monitoring will be conducted based on their results.