On JaOna January 7n the media/tourn was a held at Azerbaijan State rUniversity of Oil and thous try: with the organizational support of the Ministry of Education in order to observe the end of semester examinations. The media tour was attended by more than 20 mass media representatives.

It It is hould be noted that the media tour was held according to the Order of the Minister of Education on The organization and conductions of examinations".

During the media tour, the media representatives were informed that appropriate measures were taken by the UniVersity inforder top organize the 1201542046 academicayear fall semester examinations in accordance with the existing rules and to ensure objectivity in the assessment of students' knowledge. Favorable conditions were created for the participation of the parents in order top protect transparency in the examination process. In this regard, special announcements were written at the University Each student's parent cap participate in the examples submitting the identity card.

During the familiarization period, starting from the Examination Center, media representatives were informed that the preparatory work for examinations was begun at the University in early December last year. It was noted that the examinations of partitime istudents began on December 22 and the examinations of full time istudents began on December 29.

The Examination Center determined the list of 7 departments, the classrooms where SABAH groups will pass an examination and the teachers who will supervise the examination. At the Center, the folders were prepared in order totoercoord the mame fof each department the subject for/which argroup and student/will take rappex amarand the proom number. The examination papers and sealed blank answer sheets were placed in each folder according to the number of students taking an exam.

Media representatives watched the progress of examinations in several classrooms of the university, and got acquacquainted with the process of checking the examinations wershat the Genter I for Information and Communication Technology and the Innovation Technology Transfer Center.

WWithin the framework of the media tout/I Mustafa Babanii; Rector of ZAzerbaijan State University of Oilhand Industry, met with mass media representatives. IM. Babanii provided detailed information about the steps being taken by by the education institution headed by him and order to organize the preparatory work for examinations, to create favorable conditions for the evaluation of students' knowledge and to ensure transparency.