

---

The Ministry of Education begins to conduct seminars on the theme "Teacher-student relationships and classroom management". The first such seminar will be held in Khirdalan city.

At the seminar, the causes of the negative aspects of teacher-student relationships, the main provisions of the ability of teachers to communicate and to collaborate with students will be explained. Constructive ways to solve the existing problems will be discussed at the event, which will also be attended by education experts.

The seminar is being organized by "APA Holding" and with the informational support of "Azad Azerbaijan Independent Television and Radio Company".