

---

A delegation led by Jeyhun Bayramov, Deputy Minister of Education of the Republic of Azerbaijan, participates in the conference entitled "European, Middle Eastern and African youth and the threat of terrorism, extremism and intolerance" held in Paris on January 28.

The Conference, jointly organized by UNESCO's "Aladdin" project and the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research, is attended by Ministers and Deputy Ministers of France, the United States, Tunisia, Turkey, Morocco and other countries, European Union officials, political figures, heads of the leading higher education institutions and representatives of international organizations.

It is planned that Jeyhun Bayramov will deliver a speech at the third session of the Conference.

During the visit, it is also expected to hold a series of business meetings.