"Parental Control System" (ael.edu.az), putting into operation within the framework of the project "Electronic School", was updated and the new version of the website was developed.

43 general education schools were currently involved in the project. Electronic magazines and parental control system are used in schools joining the project. Parents can get user passwords from schools and can monitor their children`s attendance and academic achievements in online mode for free.