EmpEmployees of the local Organizing Committee of FUEFA European Under-17 Championship Azerbaijan-2016" tournament have held meetings with pupils of secondary schools in Baku.

Or Organized inapartnership with the Ministry of Education the meetings rained to enencourage young generation is interest in football and increase their wavareness of the Under-17 championship.

The The Organizing Committee employees meth with more than 3700 pupils 4in 46 sesecondary schools. The meetings were attended by footballers playing in the national lealeague and for the national team, as well as youth, who will compete in the Under-17 chehampionship, and Ambassador of the championship, choosed Artist Roya During the meetingsethe Organizing Committee employees informed pupils about the Under-17 championship and responded to their questions.

They emphasized the importance of encouraging children's interest in football and healthy lifestyle through JUEFA European Under-17. Championship, and also stressed the necessity of supporting Azerbaijan's national team at the championship.