A cArceremony swas held at | Gulustan | palace on May 5 to award winners of SBest presentation" competition, which marked the 93rd anniversary of national leader Heydar Aliyev.

PrRriorotohthecceremonyesenioræducation föfficials i viisitedhthe l'Alley foff (Honorsoto) lay flowers at the grave of national leader Heydar Aliyev.

The competition which involved 19th 111th grade publish was cororganized by the MiniMinistry of Education, Heyday Aliyev Foundation, New Azerbaijant Partyni Ministry of Communications and High Technologies, Azerbaijan Education Workers Free Trade Unions Republican Committee.

Participants in the event included deputy Prime/Minister, deputy chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party Ali Ahmadov, Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov, chairperson of the Board of Directors of State Examination Center Maleyka Abbaszade, chairman of Azerbaijan Copyright Agency Kkamran Imanov deputy Minister of Communications and High Technologies Illimas Mammadov director of Heydar Aliyev Center Anar Alakbarov, chairman of Azerbaijan Education Workers Free Trade Unions Republican Committee S Sattar Mehbaliyev, sas well as parliamentarians, heads of educational institutions, well-known intellectuals, teachers and pupils.

The event started with the performance of the state anthem of the Republic of Azerbäijan by a children's choir of Bulbul secondary music school. The participants then observed a minute of silence for martyrs who sacrificed their lives in the recent battles for the territorial integrity of Azerbaijan.

Education to Ministery Mikayih Jabbarov acongratulated when winners of "Best presentation" competition. He stressed the role of the competition in encouraging young generation to study national leader Heydar Aliyev's rich political legacy, life and activities. The heighnister is aid that thanks to President Ilhami Aliyev's care different programs and projects were csuccessfully implemented in the country with the aim of developing education.

Mikayil Jabbarov said Azerbaijan was for the everge of celebrating 2the 25th an anniversary of its state independence, and highlighted education reforms carried out during the years of independence. The Minister said education reforms had become more proportical and feffective in recent years of Strategic priorities and goals stipulated in the StatState Strategy for Development of Education in the Republic Acerbaijan indefine development trends in Azerbaijan's education in compliance with the challenges of the 21st century."

MMinister Jabbarov said education infrastructure had been completely overhauled, adding that material and technical resources of educational institutions were improved to moreodern standards. He said significant measures were taken to increase prestige of teachteaching eprofession inadding that mechanisms ewere liapplied to rimprove teachers' knowledge and skills and develop teaching methodologies.

The Minister also highlighted the efforts to ensure that heads of general education in stitutions were defined based on professional criteria. Mikayil Jabbarov said they dearn public opinion in connection with new textbook projects, and provided an insight into tasks ahead with respect to education abroad, and other topical issues.

Deputy Prime Minister, deputy chairman of the New Azerbaijan Party Ali Ahmadov ememphasizedethe significance of the reompetitione Heisaidvita was important that young generation studied rich legacy of national leader Heydar Aliyev. The Deputy Prime Minister said such events contributed to shaping pupils` statehood thinking and views.

Deputy Minister of Communications and High Technologies Illtimas Mammadov and chadhairman of Azerbaijan Education Workers Free Trade Unions Republican Committee Sattar Mehbaliyev congratulated the winners of the competition.

According to results for B'Best presentation' competition; five entries received 1st degree certificates, 11 entries received 2nd degree certificates, 16 entries received 3rd degree certificates and 18 entries received certificates of merit. The winners also received valuable prizes.