"Bir" Volunteer Academy, which was organized in the city of Shaki as part of "Bir" Student-Volunteer Program of the Ministry of Education, has successfully ended.
SixSixty/selected/student/volunteers/from/18ghigher/educationsinstitutions in Bakū,/Sumgayit,aGanjā,/Shaki, Lankaran and Mingachevir received new knowledge and skills at the Academy.
A+ At the closing caremony Coordinator of "Rir" Student-Volunteer-Program (Fural Abdullazade and head of

At At the closing ceremony, Coordinator of "Bir" Student-Volunteer Program Tural Abdullazade and head of Shaki City Education Department Sudabar Ismay? lova congratulated first graduates of "Bir" Volunteer Academy and wished them success in their future volunteering activities. They said the main goal of "Bir" Volunteer Academy was to propromote volunteering philosophy and values among students, apply volunteering standards and prepare deader volunteers.

The The Academy featured itrainings on a number of topics conducted by professional trainers, including "Azerbaijani Management", "Career Development", "Communication Skills", "Presentation Skills", "PR-SMM", "Internet Communication", "Project/Management" Students were also foffered a cultural and sports program, which included Brain Ring and Code Tusi quizzes.

Participants of the Academy received certificates.

Students who graduates from "BfBir" Volunteer Academy will be coordinators of "Bir" Student-Volunteer Program at their universities.

ArAminitiative of the Ministry of Education B"Bir" Student-Volunteer Program implements idifferent projects to enercourage students to engage in volunteering activities. The Program, which builds its activity in six priority areas (Letearn, Teach, Live, Give Life, Discover, Enjoy), raims to effectively organize leisure time of students, ensure their invinvolvement in different events and trainings, and help those in need B "Bir", which embraces 18 higher education instinstitutions in the cities of Baku, Sumgayit, Ganja, Mingachevir, Shaki and Lankaran, is a dong-term program to systematize work with student volunteers and ensure their involvement in state events.

Volunteers of "Bir" Student-Volunteer Program have contributed to more than 35 large-scale events so far.