

---

Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov received Turkey's Deputy Minister of National Education for Vocational Education Ercan Demirci on November 7.

They stressed the importance of vocational education in preparing competitive specialists in compliance with requirements of the labor market.

Mikayil Jabbarov highlighted what has been done under the "State Strategy for Development of Education in the Republic of Azerbaijan" to develop vocational education in the country.

They also discussed opportunities for experience exchange as well as prospects for cooperation in the field of vocational education.