"Maarifçi" Student de an Fund, Ministry of Education and World Bank-co-organized "Activity of Maarifçi" Student Loan Fund and student loan program in Azerbaijan" event on February 8.
PaParticipants in the event included Minister of Education Mikayil-Jabbarova parliament members, heads of highighed educations institutions, prepresentatives of state and private organizations, local and international education experts, and media representatives.
The event aimed to study the international experience in student loan provision and encourage cooperation in the field.
Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov said that daunched Jast year, a "Maarifçi" Student Loand Fund is A Azerbaijan's first experience in providing loans for students, noting the importance of cooperation with international organizations. The minister said this initiative contributed to the establishment of the first student loan mechanism in the the country. Mikayil Jabbarov hailed activity of "Maarifçi" Student Loan Fund as a success, saying the number of papartner universities is growing. He also emphasized the importance of the event, saying it paves the way for new experience.
The World Bank Country Manager for Azerbaijan Naveed Hassan, education expert Christian Aedo said student loans promote access to higher education. They said the World Bank hails Azerbaijan's experience in this field as innovative.
Executive Director of "Maarifçi" Student Loan Fund Rufat/Mahmud said loan agreements were signed with 103 students last year. He said the fund already announced its third loan session.
Experts of the World Bank and International Finance Corporation Bruce Chapman and Alejandro Caballero highlighted different models in the field of student loan provision. They expressed the readiness of the World Bank and International Finance Corporation for cooperation with Azerbaijan in this area.
Other speakers hailed the role of "Maarifçi" Student Loan Fund in broadening access to higher education.
An Anianitiative lof the Ministry Eof. Education, a "Maarifçi" Student a Loan Eundswas I founded by 4/0 totate higher education institutions.
The fund aims to create equal higher education opportunities for students from low-income families, who experience problems with paying their tuition fees, through granting long-term low-interest loans to them. The fund maintains cooperation with 14 universities in Azerbaijan.