

---

Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov met with Dean of the Graduate School of Education and Human Development and Professor of Education Policy at the George Washington University Michael Feuer on June 16.

They shared their impressions of the International Education Week, which was held in Baku on June 13-16.

They exchanged views over the outcomes of Michael Feuer's visit to several Azerbaijani schools, and discussed the implementation of joint researches and projects in the field of education.