

---

President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev has attended the opening of a new building of Nakhchivan Teachers Institute.

The head of state cut the ribbon symbolizing the opening of the building.

Chairman of the Supreme Assembly of Nakhchivan Autonomous Republic Vasif Talibov informed President Ilham Aliyev that the six-storey building has 23 auditoriums. The building features 4 computer rooms, 16 rooms supplied with the electronic boards, library, reading as well as the electronic reading rooms, painting and sculpture workshops. Fine arts, geography, music, military, medical, Azerbaijani language, higher mathematics and computer rooms are supplied with all the necessary equipment.

State-of-the-art facilities were installed in the gym. There are a 132-seat and 20-seat two conference halls in the building.

After touring the building, President Ilham Aliyev met with the teaching staff and representatives of the general public and posed for photographs together with them.

www.president.az